Our thanks to the guests and donors who gave so generously at the 2022 Dinner Auction. With over 240 guests bidding on hundreds of silent and live auction items, last month's fundraising event was a sparkling success. We're especially grateful to our guest speaker, Vietnam veteran, and Gold Star Family advocate Jim Crigler, who shared excerpts from his book "Mission of Honor: A Moral Compass for a Moral Dilemma" Our thanks also go to guest auctioneer and WTOL personality, Jerry Anderson, who once again masterfully stoked the crowd and helped raise much needed funds for humanitarian projects to assist the people of Vietnam.

If you missed the auction but want to learn more about our guest speaker, Jim Crigler, and the work he is doing with Gold Star Families, click here to see the video: A River of Healing.

Hearts for Hue and the D.O.V.E Fund: Partners in Progress

Throughout its history, the D.O.V.E. Fund has worked with local and national officials to determine the areas of greatest need in Vietnam. However, our greatest resource maybe the partnership we have with other NGO's (Non-governmental Organizations) such as Hearts For Hue in Central Vietnam. Based in Thua Thien-Hue Province, the non-profit organization is connected with a number of humanitarian organizations to bring aid to the less fortunate in Vietnam. To learn more about how the D.O.V.E. Fund works with Hearts For Hue, click on the link below to see a short video.

A qualified charitable distribution is an IRA withdrawal that is paid directly from your IRA to a qualifying charity.
